

An award-winning online Defensive Driver training course that has transformed driver attitudes and behaviour around the globe.

At Business Driver we are passionate about keeping drivers safe on the road, therefore we are excited to offer One More Second – a web-based e-learning course with a track record of measurable success.

Developed in association with edriving, One More Second is based on the premise that almost all collisions are caused by driver actions, therefore if awareness is increased and reactions made faster, the vast majority of accidents can be avoided altogether.

One More Second starts by addressing the root causes of dangerous driving. It challenges the attitudes and behaviour of drivers, helping to instil a defensive approach that overrides emotions and reduces risks for all road users.

One More Second proceeds to develop key driving skills, such as hazard identification, through real-time video scenarios, fully narrated factual presentations and interactive tests that reinforce important points.

Key benefits:

- ✓ Award-winning learning, tried and tested globally
- ✓ Eight web-based, platform independent learning modules
- ✓ Learn at your own speed in a safe environment
- ✓ Targeted towards high risk drivers, yet also ideal for newly employed drivers and as a refresher course
- ✓ Has achieved measurable success in changing the attitudes and behaviour of drivers
- ✓ Teaches key skills in defensive driving in a range of different environments: urban, rural and motorway
- ✓ An engaging mix of learning materials: interactive real-time video scenarios, presentations and tests
- ✓ Certificates of completion issued
- ✓ Supported by RiskTraker®

Worldwide road traffic deaths every year

It is estimated that 1.24 million people are killed each year, taking an immeasurable toll on families and communities.

One More Second includes interactive modules that address:

- Hazard Perception and Evaluation
- Defensive driving in different environments:
 - City/urban driving
 - Country/rural driving
 - Motorway driving

A range of real-time video scenarios put you completely in the driving seat to explore the hazards associated with urban, rural and motorway driving.

The modules are filled with interactive quizzes that have been designed to ensure that safety-critical knowledge is fully understood and retained.

As part of RiskTraker® or accessed separately, One More Second is fully supported by Business Driver, a global market leader in driver risk management and fleet risk management, delivering driver training in over 70 countries.
